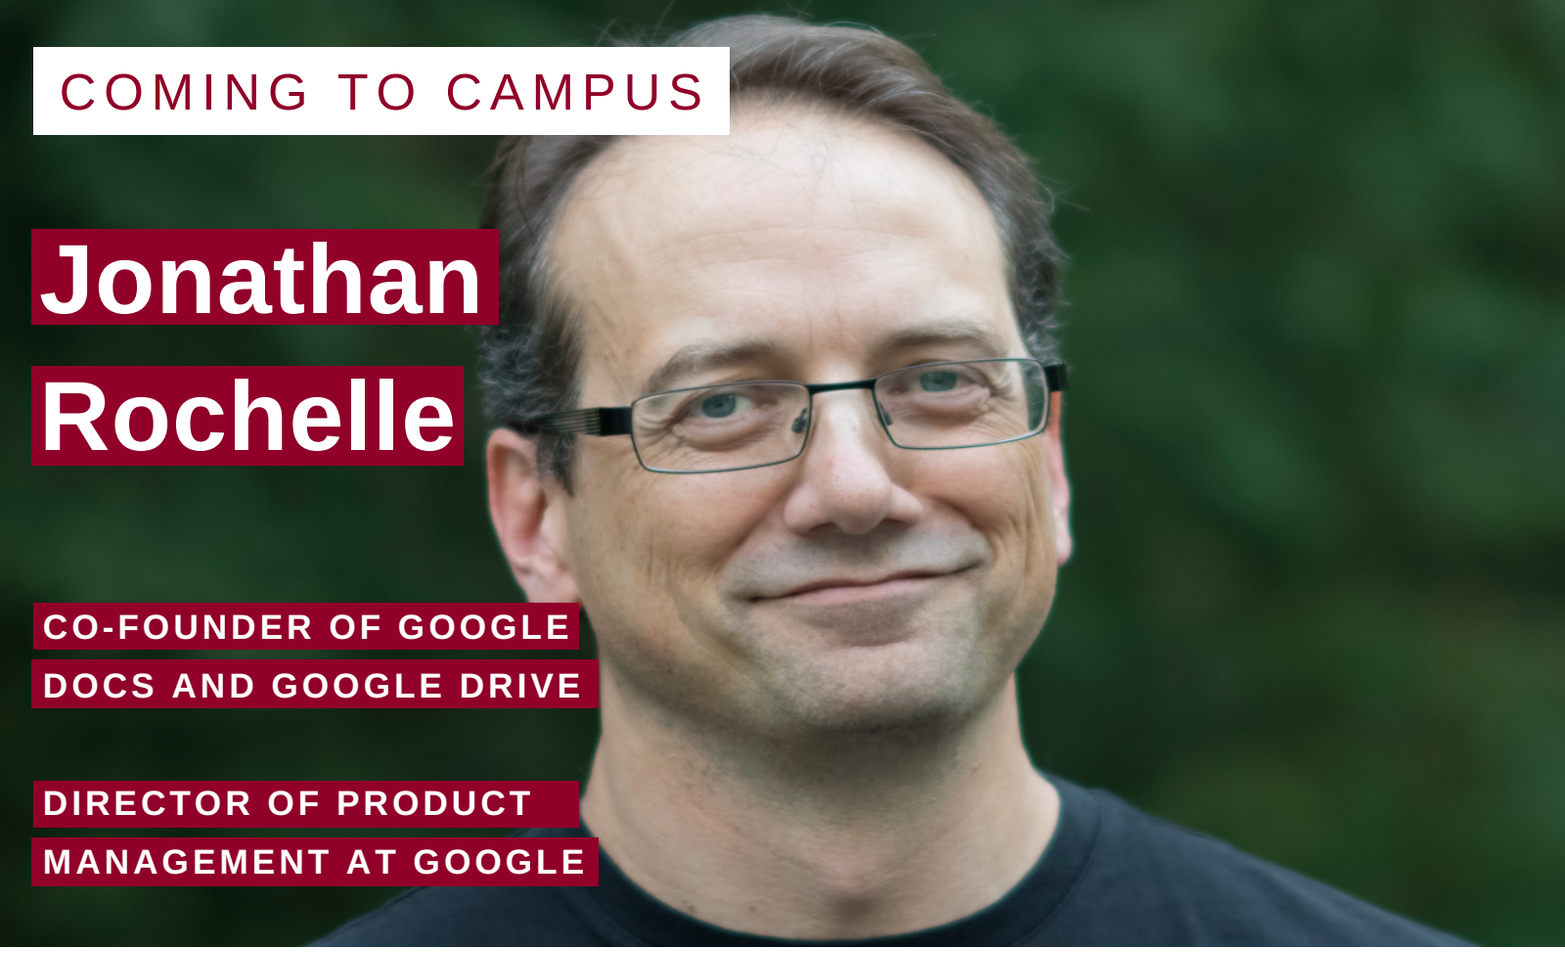
COMING TO CAMPUS



Jonathan Rochelle

CO-FOUNDER OF GOOGLE DOCS AND GOOGLE DRIVE

DIRECTOR OF PRODUCT MANAGEMENT AT GOOGLE

CREATING GOOGLE'S CORE PRODUCTS

Jonathan "JR" Rochelle is director of product management at Google and a co-founder of Google Docs and Google Drive, including other apps in that suite such as Google Sheets, Slides, Forms, Apps Script, and Google Fonts. Jonathan is now primarily responsible for Jamboard, a collaborative whiteboard app and large-screen hardware device, and Google Apps for Education, which reaches more than 60 million educators and students globally.

Join us for our monthly Gabelli School Speaker Series event, where we'll discuss the creation of Google Drive, the future of Google, and what it takes to build products used by nearly 1 billion people.
